Rosé

Rosé 'La Marouette' IGP Pays d'Oc, Jacques Frelin Vignobles, Langued-Roussillon, 2018 (France) ① £18.95

Delicate aspects of rose petal and red fruit, with soft textures and a fresh finish it's a winner all by itself but works curiously well with barbecued food.

Red

Tempranillo Viñas Viejas 'Cuesta Colora' DO, Bodegas Parra Jiménez, Castilla-La Mancha, 2018 (Spain) ① £18.95

This is the Parra Families signature wine. A pure example of the most Spanish of all red wine grape varieties, made from the best old-vine Tempranillo.

Languedoc 'La Borda' AOP, Jacques Frelin Vignobles, Languedoc-Roussillon, 2018 (France) ① £22.50

A delicious and well-crafted blend of Syrah, Grenache, Carignan, and Mourvèdre. Aromas and flavours of red berries and forest fruits, there's attractive hints of vanilla on the nose.

Valréas, Côtes du Rhône Villages AOP, Domaine Montmartel, Rhône, 2018 (France) ① £23.50

A real treat from this talented wine maker. It has everything you'd expect from a pure Rhône red – vivid fruit, tasty spice and real warmth.

Barbera 'Titouan' DOC, Castello di Tassarolo, Piedmont, 2018 (Italy) ① £26.50

On the nose you'll find wild dark berries and cherries, the palate is warm, soft, round and balanced.

Shiraz 'Running Duck', Stellar Organics, 2018 (South Africa) ① £21.95

Lots of tasty, jammy dark fruit – damsons, blackberries, plum – with a swirling core of smoke, pepper and spice. It's rich but takes a step back from overtly full-bodied and the mouth feel is exceptionally clean and fresh for Shiraz.
